President's Message:

May 2009

We were pleased to have Shawn Henry, Director of the FBI's Cyber Division, as our April luncheon guest speaker. On behalf of the organization, I want to thank him for his time and expertise. Director Henry's detailed lecture covered the FBI's investigations into serious computer intrusions that target the United States by malicious code, insider threats and remote access, as well as by foreign adversaries, terrorists, and organized crime groups. He also explained how the Cyber Division counteracts and responds to these serious computer crimes through prioritization, proactive investigations and predicting the movements of known and unknown threats. In addition, Director Henry also stressed strong partnerships between the FBI and the military, as well as all law enforcement agencies and the private sector, are essential in the battle against computer crimes.

In 2001, Dir. Henry was promoted to field supervisor of the Computer Crimes Squad for the Baltimore Field Office, with responsibilities for the investigation of computer intrusion and computer fraud matters, computer forensic examinations, and technical operations. In 2003, Dir. Henry was named Assistant Inspector and Team Leader in the Inspection Division at FBI Headquarters, where he led teams conducting evaluations and audits of FBI field offices and Headquarters Divisions. Director Henry was selected as Assistant Special Agent-in-Charge of the Philadelphia Field Office in 2004, with oversight for all administrative matters, special operations, technical services, and the Field Intelligence Group. Director Henry was subsequently detailed to FBI Headquarters to assist in the implementation of the National Security Branch. In 2006, he was selected as a member of the Senior Executive Service to serve as Chief of the Executive Staff to the Executive Assistant Director of the National Security Branch. In 2007, Dir. Henry was named Deputy Assistant Director of the FBI's Cyber Division, with program management responsibility for all FBI computer investigations worldwide.

The May Luncheon guest speaker will be Lieutenant Commander Detective Jack Cambria, the Commanding Officer of the NYPD's Hostage Negotiation Team (HNT). Lieutenant Cambria, a highly decorated, 27-year veteran of the New York City Police Department, has commanded the HNT for eight years. He also has a total of 16 years experience with the NYPD's elite Emergency Services Unit. Lieutenant Cambria will provide us with a brief overview of the Hostage Negotiation Team and will share his experiences as a negotiator for the nation's top law enforcement agency.

To ensure you are accommodated at the May luncheon, please pre-register by calling 888-893-4332, or emailing breilly@aapple.org

- Tuesday, October 27, 2009

Annual AAPLE Scholarship Cruise:

- Thursday, June 11, 2009 @ 6:30 PM. We will set sail aboard the Atlantica, launching from Pier 17, at the South Street Seaport. Members are encouraged to reserve tickets early, as this is a popular event that sells out quickly.

Reservations can be made by calling 917-579-7593, or emailing us at breilly@aapple.org

- If you are submitting a child or grandchild for a scholarship, please read the 2009 Scholarship Application carefully, and remember to complete all required captions. (The application is included with this newsletter and is also available online). Filing ends Monday, June 1, 2009.

Scholarship winners will be selected during a drawing on the cruise.

Golf Outing:

- October 5, 2009, at the Richmond County Country Club, New York City's premiere golf facility, located at 135 Flagg Place, Staten Island, NY

I look forward to seeing you all at our upcoming events.

Sincerely,
Rafael Pineiro
