President's Message:

October 2009

Although we had a rainy summer, I hope it still was an enjoyable one. Our Annual Golf Outing ushered in the fall season with warm weather and clear blue skies. Held at the exclusive Richmond County Country Club (RCCC), on Staten Island, AAPLE participants and their guests came out to enjoy New York City's sole private championship golf course. The day began with a golf clinic at 8:00 a.m., as well as a full breakfast, including an omelet station and other sumptuous fares. Players arriving at the elevated 16th tee received a special treat from Long Drive Professional Michael Michaelides, who offered to hit all tee shots for that hole. It was a 350-yard, downhill, par 4 with a tricky water hazard 20 yards short of the green. Additionally, Hillside Honda provided a brand new 2010 Honda Accord as a hole-in-one prize on the 13th hole; however, there were no aces. Following the tournament, players were provided a top-shelf cocktail hour followed by a table service dinner in the RCCC Grand Ballroom.

I want to thank my Board Officers who worked so hard to organize the event, as well as Chief of Department Joseph Esposito and Fox 5 Meteorologist Mike Woods, who both emceed the prize portion of the night's event. And what prizes they were! A 52" HD television, cruises to the Bahamas, NY Giants football tickets, several Broadway show tickets, the iPod Touch, GPS navigation devices, a laptop and a notebook, were just a few of the prizes acquired by lucky winners. I want to also thank you, the membership, and our many sponsors for their support and generosity. You all helped to make the Golf Outing a resounding success.

We will resume our luncheons on Tuesday, October 27, starting with guest speaker Colonel Daniel Allen Rice, Assistant Professor of National Security Law, Environmental Law and Constitutional and Military Law, U.S. Military Academy, in West Point, New York. As the Course Director of several programs at West Point's Department of Law, Col. Rice brings unique expertise to all his lectures. Colonel Rice will focus his lecture on West Point's role in preparing its cadets for the war on terror, and his insights into the establishment of the National Military Academy of Afghanistan. His speeches also emphasize Leadership, the Professional Military Ethic, and draw upon his vast knowledge of Foreign Counterintelligence, Counterterrorism and National Security from his time with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. As time permits, a question-and-answer session with Col. Rice will follow. Professor Rice holds a Juris Doctorate from The University of Texas School of Law; a Master of Public Administration from The University of Texas (El Paso); and a Bachelor of Science degree from The United States Military Academy.

On November 10, 2009, AAPLE will hold its First Annual Cigar Event at Club Macanudo. For further information, please contact Eric Pagan at (646) 208-2211 or visit our website at www.aapple.org.
