PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

March 2011

Police Commissioner Kelly addresses the AAPLE membership on February 15. (Left): AAPLE President, First Deputy Commissioner Rafael Pineiro, presents Commissioner Kelly with plaque for his unwavering dedication to the NYPD, the AAPLE organization and to the citizens of New York.

I want to personally thank Police Commissioner Raymond W. Kelly for his highly anticipated appearance at the February 15th luncheon. Commissioner Kelly, a combat veteran of the Vietnam War who retired as a Colonel from the Marine Corps Reserves after 30 years of service, addressed the membership on a broad spectrum of topics including: protecting the city post- 9/11; future plans for securing the new World Trade Center site; the new NYPD Joint Operation Command at Police Headquarters; the 10th anniversary of September 11; and the Tier III pension status and how it will affect NYPD personnel. He also discussed aspects of the Department's overall mission including its counterterrorism operations and crime reduction strategies. The AAPLE membership is grateful to have been privy to Commissioner Kelly's unparalleled insight on these important matters.

Our next speaker will be Richard Britton, the Deputy Chief Investigator of Cyber and Forensic Investigations at the Cybercrime and Identity Theft Bureau of the New York County District Attorney's Office. His duties include providing computer forensic analysis and investigative support for what are often large scale national and international cases. Richard is a retired detective from the NYPD, where he was assigned to the Firearms Task Force and Brooklyn North Homicide Squad. His last assignment was with the Computer Investigation & Technology Unit. After retiring, Richard was a Senior Forensic Consultant at a leading computer forensic software company. He is also a trainer and curriculum developer for the Law Enforcement Innovation Center, as well as an authorized instructor for the National White Crime Center. He is a proud member of the Northeast Chapter of the High Technology Crimes Association (HTCIA), where he was a board member and Chapter President. Richard has received several awards, including the 2004 HTCIA Case of the Year for "Operation Innocent Eyes".

NOTICE TO AAPLE PAYPAL USERS

AAPLE has cancelled the recurring, annual membership fees that were billed to your PayPal account. This was necessary because too many members appeared to forget that membership charges were automatically billed to their PayPal accounts annually, and they subsequently forwarded duplicate payments. We have reversed the charges on the duplicate payments. The notice from PayPal informing that your yearly membership dues have been canceled does not affect your AAPLE membership; it only cancels PayPal's membership subscription that was used to automatically collect your annual dues. Until further notice, future membership transactions via PayPal will be a one-time charge and you will be required to initiate your renewal yearly. Reminders will be sent to those who have not renewed. If you have not renewed this year's membership, you may do so at any time online via PayPal, or by downloading the renewal application from our website and forwarding it, along with a check to the address on the application. If your 2011 membership dues were inadvertently reversed during this process, we will send you a notice accordingly. Please feel free to contact us if you have any additional questions.
